

Organization	Focus	Link
Brooklyn Community Foundation	Immigrant Rights Action Fund (NYC only) The Action Fund offers support for ongoing civil resistance and organizing efforts—including community-building, bystander training, public education, action planning, and event logistics—with grants up to $2,500.	https://www.brooklyncommunityfoundation.org/immigrant-rights-fund-action-fund
Brooklyn Community Foundation	Sustained Response Grant (NYC only) The Sustained Response Grant offers support to long-term challenges, including increased threats of deportations that would separate parents and children, as well as continued funding for advocacy and organizing. Funding supports ongoing legal consultations, coalition building and community organizing, mental and physical health services, political education, workforce development efforts, and community safety for immigrant communities across Brooklyn.	https://www.brooklyncommunityfoundation.org/immigrant-rights-fund-sustained-response-grant
Common Counsel Foundation	-Efforts that support emergent strategies that help communities resist in rapidly changing conditions (e.g. immigration raids, hate crimes, media attacks, regressive policy proposals, etc.). This also includes resisting new or amplified threats; -Efforts to think strategically or coordinate between groups to build power and move a proactive community defined agenda; -Organizations that most clearly demonstrate a membership-led, community-organizing model that is working toward social, racial, economic or environmental policy change in disadvantaged communities through collective action; -Organizations that operate with a clear racial justice and intersectional framework; -Organizations that have a strong group of leaders and board members that represent the community they serve and who are accountable to the community; -Organizations that have strong leadership development programs for their members, and also have a concrete plan to grow and to build more power by getting more people involved; -Organizations that operate in deep alliance with and whose agenda is rooted in an agenda defined by base-building organizations; -Movement-building actions such as convenings, coalition- and base-building, communications, capacity-building, trainings or similar tactics to respond to or move a proactive agenda in rapidly changing conditions; -Organizations working in "hard to fund" areas, including the southern US, the "rust belt" and Rocky Mountain States; -Organizations that have IRS 501(c)3 tax exempt status or a fiscal sponsor who does.	http://www.commoncounsel.org/still-we-rise-fund/
Community Justice Exchange	The National Bail Fund Network is made up of over sixty community bail and bond funds across the country. We regularly update this listing of community bail funds that are freeing people by paying bail/bond and are also fighting to abolish the money bail system and pretrial detention. Note that this directory is currently limited to community bail funds that are regularly paying bail/bond within the criminal legal or immigration detention systems for community members as their central action. The directory does not include the many legal defense funds that allied organizations hold that may include bail support and the numerous community-based organizations that periodically pay for bail and bond.	https://www.communityjusticeexchange.org/nbfn-directory/
Emergent Fund	-Efforts that support emergent strategies that help communities respond to rapidly changing conditions. This includes resisting new or amplified threats and building power to move a proactive agenda. -Efforts seeking long-term social justice and economic justice in a political and social climate that seeks to dismantle such efforts.	https://www.emergentfund.net/apply
Forward Community Investments	These grants—up to $500 per grant—are focused on small organizations and individuals that need some kind of "just-in-time" boost; whether it's money to attend a conference, enroll in a class or pay for travel expenses.	https://www.forwardci.org/just-in-time-grants

Freedom for Immigrants	The kinds of support we offer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Sponsor, host or post-release housing -Immigration bond assistance -Visitation A person is eligible for our bond program if they: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -are a recent asylum seeker, who has been persecuted in their home country and detained by ICE within three months of entering the country; OR -have been held in prolonged immigration detention for a minimum of 6 months; OR -have been living in the country for over 10 years with a strong community presence; AND -have been granted a bond by ICE or an immigration judge in California or Louisiana We will prioritize the bonds of the people who meet the criteria above based on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -have been assigned an immigration judge with low case grant rates (when Freedom for Immigrants bonds them out, they will be assigned a new judge on the non-detained docket); -have an attorney or we reasonably believe an attorney can be secured once the person is released; -have a Freedom for Immigrants sponsor; -be connected with one of our visitation programs; -have strong community ties; -assessed to be self-sufficient with ability to cope in a non-clinical placement; -pregnant; and -are the primary caretaker of someone else. 	https://www.freedomforimmigrants.org/support-request-form https://www.freedomforimmigrants.org/national-bond-fund
Groundswell Fund	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -A strategic organizing response to a Public attack or a Community crisis. -A strategic organizing response to advance solidarity and coordination of organizations working across issues to defend the most vulnerable communities. -A strategic organizing response to an unforeseen legislative or policy development. -A strategic organizing response to a new Opportunity that is immediate, has a specific time frame, and is aligned with Groundswell Fund's approach and priorities. -A short-term project or action that creates opportunities to organize and build coalitions and/or educate Public officials or the general public. 	https://groundswellfund.org/rapid-response-fund/
Immigration Advocates	Legal Services Directory (services available in state of Mississippi, national as well)	https://www.immigrationadvocates.org/nonprofit/legaldirectory/search?state=MS https://www.immigrationadvocates.org/nonprofit/legaldirectory/
Latino Community Foundation	Nuestro Futuro Fund supports Latino-led organizations that are equipped to provide legal aid; defend immigration rights and protect our immigrant families; and/or support youth civic and political engagement. (scroll down)	https://latino-community-foundation.networkforgood.com/projects/21334-nuestro-futuro-fund
Liberty Hill	Rapid response for racial justice and young immigrant children	https://www.libertyhill.org/funding-pools
MRG Foundation	To provide grassroots organizations and community organizing groups and projects with small grants to respond to emergencies and opportunities. Responsive grants can be: Micro Grants: granted for general operating costs associated with grassroots organizing. Critical Response Grants: granted for community organizing in response to an unexpected crisis or opportunity. Travel Grants: limited to rural organizations seeking travel assistance.	https://www.mrgfoundation.org/grant-programs/
Pride Foundation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Community organizing efforts in response to incidents of hate and violence, significant policy changes, and other timely events -Legal support and related services for immigrants and refugees in response to local and federal changes -Organizing, support, and services for activities related to changes in rights and access for trans and gender diverse people at local, state, and federal levels -Mental health and related services for LGBTQ+ people in crisis -Public education and organizing efforts in response to opportunities like the 2020 Census and local, state, and federal elections 	https://pridefoundation.org/find-funding/grants/rapid-response-fund/
Resources available in Mississippi	Resources available in Mississippi	https://www.clarionledger.com/story/news/politics/2019/08/08/mississippi-ice-raids-how-you-can-help-legal-aid-donations-child-care-food-hygiene-items/1959768001/

San Francisco Foundation	-Timely and urgent: Your organization must be responding to an unanticipated catalyzing event or urgent external challenge. -Opportunity for immediate impact: The project is strategic with a clear timeline and goals, with the desired outcomes having the potential to positively affect the community right away. -Clear focus on racial and/or economic equity: Your project specifically addresses racial and/or economic inequities. It should demonstrate a clear equity framework, explicitly responding to the unique needs, challenges, and strengths of marginalized communities. -Movement- and power-building: The project must aim to build the voice and power of people of color or other marginalized communities. -Representative leadership and staff: The project must be led by those who are most impacted by the racial and economic inequities that the effort aims to address (e.g. communities of color, immigrants, refugees, formerly incarcerated residents, youth, low-wage workers, people with disabilities, low-income residents, LGBTQ community members, etc.). Priority will be given to: -Requests from small organizations (budgets of $500,000 or less) and new grassroots efforts, including faith-based groups and fiscally sponsored projects. -Projects that partner with other local organizations and community leaders who are doing complementary work.	https://sff.org/what-we-do/funding/rf/
Social Justice Fund	Small project specific grants of $2,000 to help grassroots organizations using a community organizing approach to respond quickly to the changing political climate with actions and/or strategies that could not have been anticipated. Please contact Magan Do (magan@socialjusticefund.org or (206) 624-4081 x107) with questions and/or to talk about your eligibility—especially if this is your first time applying to Social Justice Fund, we'd love to talk with you!	https://socialjusticefund.org/funding-opportunities/
Third Wave Fund	-Youth Leadership: Young women of color and/or trans, gender non-conforming, intersex activists, and/or queer youth under 35 are a core part of planning and decision-making processes. Campaigns, efforts, or organizations are led by and for communities impacted by the event or situation you're responding to. -Gender Justice Focus: Your political analysis and project show how the issue(s) you're responding to address or are connected to patriarchy, transphobia, homophobia, gender inequity, or gender-based violence. -Gender Justice activism includes racial justice, economic justice, immigration justice, reproductive justice, health & HIV/AIDS justice, trans/intersex/queer justice, disability justice, healing justice, anti-violence and/or anti-criminalization work. -Community Power Building: Your proposal's strategies and activities help build power for youth-led gender justice activism, organizing, and/or healing in your communities, and are connected to the goal(s), outcome(s), and/or changes you want as a result of your proposed actions. -Urgency or Time-Sensitivity: The event or situation you're responding to was unanticipated, requires urgent or timely action, and/or leverages recent attention or media coverage. -Organizational Need: We will prioritize organizations with budgets under $500,000 and that are based in areas with limited access to philanthropic resources.	http://www.thirdwavefund.org/mobilize-power-fund.html							